NOW ON SALE. IMPERIAL QUARTO. NGLISH AND CHINESE WITH THE PUSTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.

An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Panti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best Nanaimo, British bark, 897, Otter, Dec. principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, schieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins | Sea Swallow, British bark, 332, Maher, Dec. 2 and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.

To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration .-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English Valkyrien, Sritish b rk, 492, Landholm, Dec. 1 and Chinese Distionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English Walter Siegfried, British bark, 392, Lawrence, words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely re- Hedvig, British ark, 876, Sodormann, Oct. 8, quires examples to display the various applications and equivalents of different words which Taku, British str., 600, Wilde, Nov. 27, Jardine, have one general meaning. Of those examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitheric pub-

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all prepared to accept RISKS against FIRE at themselves it explains subjects fully with which very law indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested 1078 in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-
